This game has no end, neither good, nor bad.

„Art has no answers, only solutions, and resolutions...”

Art has only vision and revision...

Art has only hope and more hope... again and again, against circumstance and history. “Israel Horovitz

Bratislava, October 29, 2019

Studio Kaplnka will be the first in Slovakia to present well-known play of American playwright and screenwriter Israel Horovitz. The historical first Slovak premiere of the play Lebensraum will take place on November 11, 2019 at 7 pm in the Studio Kaplnka on Ventúrska 3, where students of third year of the Theater Faculty of the Academy of Performing Arts will perform.

The play maps the state of Europe after probably the worst events of 20th century. It looks at lives of many people marked by World War II, whether they are dock worker or a German chancellor. „This game has no end, neither good, nor bad,” Horovitz writes in his work, pointing to the situation during Holocaust, which is unfortunately similar to the current situation in Europe. Especially by the acting cut we present to the viewer the principle of epic theater, which allows us to handle very current, perhaps difficult theme with engagement and with humor.

Theater Lab represents the largest of the four theater spaces of the Theater Studio of Theater Faculty of the Academy of Performing Arts. The name was given from word laboratory, because it represents a place for students experiments. Its task is to represent the production of fourth and fifth year students of Theater Faculty. Creative work and staging of theatrical production is part of the teaching process of all departments of Theater Faculty of Academy of Performing Arts. The dramaturgy of the theater is diverse and in its repertoire you can find plays on various themes and periods. The play Lebensraum will be presented in Studio Kaplnka on Ventúrska Street.
